M'CARREN WINS;

Both McMahon and Curry Claim Victory in the Primary Fight In the Seventeenth District of Manhattan.

GOV. ODELL'S CANDIDATE LOSES IN TWENTY-FIFTH.

Old Tammany Leaders Are Reelected—The Hot Fight in the Thirtieth Sets Paul Helfer's Dog Barking Wisely.

Looking as sad as though he had lost all his political prestige, a gold watch, a diamond stud and a large sum of money, Senator P. H. McCarren appeared on the streets of Brooklyn today. From his appearance one would never imagine that he had shown himself a real boss by carrying sixteen out of the twenty-one Assembly Districts in the borough against the combined opposition of Tammany Hall and what remains of the old Hugh McLaughlin

Deputy Fire Commissioner Doyle suceceded in winning out in the Seventh District against McCarren, although de-serted by the most powerful interests at Coney Island, Sheepshead Bay and Bath Beach. The only consolation Mc-Carren can get out of this defeat is the fact that Doyle won by a reduced majority-which was to be expected.

A feature of the election was the thorough squeiching of Bird S. Coler, who lost his own election district. The sentiment of the people was that a man who was once a candidate for Governor showed a sense of smallness by descending into a district fight.

The result of the primaries yestersaid Senator McCarren, "was .a vindication of the attitude of our organization in maintaining its right to regulate its own internal affairs and to resist the attempt on the part of Tammany Hall to, in any wise, attempt to interfere with our political identity and autonomy. There is no political division in the State of New York or in the United States that will more jealously guard its right to exercise every political prerogative than the Borough of Brooklyn, and any attempt on the part of any man or organization outside of this borough to dictate its policy will always be vigorously resented.

An Indorsement for Parker. "The victory was in no wise due my personal stand, because anybody who had taken the attitude I assumed would have found the people of Brooklyn sustaining him as well. "I think that this also may b spelled out of the result. Judge Parker has been significantly indorsed again by the people, and we may assume that Brooklyn will give him a very large only 239 and lost the Thirty-first Ward by 634. In March Doyle carried this ward, which includes Coney Island and Sheepshead Bay, by 700 and over.

Bird Coler Defeated.

In the Seventeenth District Bird 8. Coler and John L. Shea, the present eader of the district, were defeated by forty-two votes by Joseph Donnelly, the McCarren candidate. Coler lost his own election district by a vote of 35

McCarren, by the addition of the Seventeenth District, now controls sixtees of the twenty-one Assembly dis-triots in Kings County.

In the Fourth District, James B. Bouck, one of the Tax Commissioners and McCarren's leader, defeated Robert F. Gillin, the Tammany candidate, by a majority of between 600 and 700. The McCarrenites had feit some doubt about this district and Bouck's victory was the cause of wild rejoicing.

Regan's Big Victory. James S. Regan, the leader of the Six- to this city, teenth Assembly District in Kings, put | Former Sec up a great fight against his opponent, Patrick Lynch, who was backed by the Doyle and Tammany forces. Regan is Deputy Commissioner of Public Works and a hustler for McCarren. When the at-Arms Martin will attend to the disvote was counted last night Lynch was tribution of soap, towels and other tol anowed under by 809 votes.

"That'll hold him for a while," said Regan when he heard the result. In Manhattan and the Bronx Murphy had everything his own way, the Tammany leaders holding their own easily.

Here's a Wise Dog.

The muszle was taken off Paul Helfer's dog up in the Thirtieth Assembly District to-day and he barked out some observations on the hot fight put up were called, stopped at nothing to between Harry Hart and George A boost their candidate. They are charged Burrell. Hart won by a vote of 1,700 to work and high bindery.

"Bosh!" said big Dick McMahon. "It takes money to bring out a crooked sidered to be a dublous one. Said the dog: "It doesn't do to underestimate an antagonist in a primary fight. The wise Alecks who wanted to sport. bet two to one that Hart would get two votes for each vote for Burrell were giving false odds. Of course I knew that Burrell had to buck against a hot proposition, but I never thought he would poll such a big vote. I'd give 1,474 against 1,341 for Curry. affly phonograph records if I could only call the name of the voter who saved Myer from losing his election district."

It Was a Rough Road The Hart forces were pleased with the result, but there was no red fire burned by them in the district when the vote was known. Burrell's men claim that away with Hart, backed by the Algonquin Club, the liquor dealers, the Tammany General Committee and the officers of the district. The Hart men go back at them by charging that the Gorlias, as Burrell's young supporters

WASHINGTON HANCOCK DEAD

Final Settlement of the Dispute. Between the Employers and Workingmen Expected by End of the Week.

NASON RESPONSIBLE FOR BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Since Displacing Phil Weinseimer as Head of Alliance He Has Won Confidence of Bosses and Men Alike.

Preliminary steps were taken to-day ooking to the final settlement of the lockouts and strikes in the building trades. By the end of the week it is hoped that employers and men will have approached a basis of settlement and that work can be resumed.

The man upon whom rests the bulk of the responsibility for a settlement is William Nason, new head of the Building Trades Alliance, who displaced Philip Weinselmer. The bosses respect him and he has a big following among the men. He is the leader of the marble cutters, and it is through this organization that the work of clearing up the situation will probably be accomplished.

Nason and a committee from the unions in the marble trades held a conference this afternoon with a committee from the Marble Industry Employers' Association with a view to settling their individual strike. The whole queston of settlement has narrowed down to the queston of what shall be done with the non-union men who were employed to take the places of the members of the five trades that were locked out at the beginning of the trouble. At a secret meeting of the Building Trades Employers' Association, held just after the lockout was declared, a resolution was adopted pledging the bosses not to discharge any of the nonunion men. This is the stumbling-block in the way of settlement just now, but in the way of settlement just now, but there are means of getting around it. There are 1,300 non-union men at work in places formerly held by members of the locked-out and striking trades. It has been suggested by the bosses that these men be taken into the unions, inasmuch as the unions have decided to stand firm on the proposition of refusing to work with non-union men. Should this course be decided upon and should any of the non-union men refuse to go into the unions, it would open the way for the bosses to discharge them.
